For AMP program clients, Client hereby expressly authorizes the Technology Platform to submit instructions to a custodian agreed upon by the parties and designated by each Advisory Client (the “Custodian”) to deduct and pay to the Technology Platform the full amount of fees due from each Advisory Client for the Technology Platform’s and Sub-Manager’s services pursuant to the AMP program (the “Client Fee”). Further Client hereby grants full discretionary authority to (i) invest and reinvest the assets in the AMP program assets and (ii) retain Sub-Managers with respect to AMP assets, which Sub-Managers, in turn, shall be granted full discretionary authority to invest and reinvest the AMP program assets with respect to which such Sub-Managers have been granted investment discretion, subject to reasonable restrictions requested by Client.

SEIA generally processes transactions for each client account independently unless we decide to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. Please refer to the SEIA ADV Part 2A for a disclosure of the conditions under which we would aggregate the purchase or sale of securities.

IV. PROXY VOTING:

Client acknowledges that Client is solely responsible for and shall direct the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by Client shall be voted, unless the account(s) is an ERISA account, and such authority has not been delegated to another named fiduciary in the plan’s written documents. SEIA and/or the Client will direct the Custodian to forward to Client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications related to Client’s Account(s). In addition, SEIA will not advise or take any action for the Client with respect to any legal matters, including bankruptcies and class actions, for the securities held in Client’s Account(s).

V. FEE PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

Client authorizes the custodian holding Client funds and securities to deduct SEIA fees directly from Client Account(s) in accordance with statements prepared and submitted to the custodian by SEIA. The custodian will provide periodic Account statements to Client. Such statements will reflect all fee withdrawals by SEIA in accordance with this Fee Payment Authorization. It is Client’s responsibility to verify the accuracy of the fee calculation. The custodian will not determine whether the fee is properly calculated. This authorization may not apply to Financial Planning services.

VI. CLIENT’S RESPONSIBILITIES:

Client recognizes that the value and usefulness of the advisory services of SEIA will be dependent upon information that Client provides and upon Client active participation in the formulation of investment objectives. Client will complete a detailed questionnaire provided by SEIA. Client will also provide copies of documents as SEIA may reasonably request to permit complete evaluation and implementation of the portfolio decisions. SEIA does not conduct independent verification of any information provided by Client. Consequently, if any Client information becomes inaccurate or changes due to various circumstances, the Client understands it is their responsibility to notify SEIA in writing as soon as possible. To that end, the Client agrees to indemnify SEIA for any liability incurred by reason of either the Client failing to notify us of changes to and/or providing inaccurate information.

VII. AUTHORITY OF CLIENT:

Client represents and warrants that Client has full and unrestricted power and authority to enter into this Agreement and that the terms of this Agreement do not violate any obligation or duty to which Client is bound, whether arising out of contract, operation of law, or otherwise. Client holds good, marketable, and indefeasible title to the securities and assets which Client places under SEIA's management and such assets are and will be free from any security interest, lien, charge, or other encumbrance except as may be created by SEIA in the performance of its duties hereunder or unless SEIA expressly agrees otherwise. If Client is a corporation, partnership, government agency, trust, estate or other legal entity, Client represents that the person executing this Agreement on its behalf has full power and authority to do so and that when so executed and delivered shall be binding. Client agrees to promptly deliver copies of applicable governing documents, corporate resolutions, or other action authorizing this Agreement upon SEIA's reasonable request. Furthermore, Client has carefully reviewed this Agreement, has had an opportunity to discuss the fee provisions and other arrangements relating to the Account(s) with SEIA and fully understands the services to be provided hereunder and the associated risks.

VIII. TERM:

For AMP, Elite, SAS, STS, Investment Consulting, on-going Financial Planning, or for on-going Retirement Plan Consulting services will continue until either party terminates the Agreement on immediate written notice. If termination occurs prior to the end of a calendar quarter, SEIA maintains the right to invoice for fees due on a pro-rata basis. Upon termination, all Client assets will be held at the custodian, and it will be Client's responsibility to instruct the custodian as to the final disposition of assets, unless Client specifically notifies SEIA to liquidate or take other action.

For Financial Planning (Comprehensive/Modular) or one-time Retirement Plan Consulting, Client may terminate the Agreement at any time and a refund of the unearned fees will be made based on time and effort expended before termination.

The Agreement for one-time services terminates upon delivery of the Financial Plan or consultation. If Client is dissatisfied, and if requested by Client in writing within 10 days of delivery of the plan or consultations, SEIA will (at SEIA's sole discretion) either modify/ make changes to the plan or provide additional consultations at no additional cost, or refund all or part of the fees paid.

IX. CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS:

SEIA is a Registered Investment Adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Advisers Act"). The following disclosures are provided regarding SEIA's background and business practices.

- b. Financial Advisors of SEIA are insurance brokers with Signature Estate Securities, Inc., Signature Comprehensive Insurance Services, LLC ("SCIS"), and Signature Estate & Insurance Services ("SEIS").
- c. As registered representatives or insurance agents, these individuals are authorized to offer various types of investments and insurance for which a sales commission may be earned. Under such circumstances, SEIA would have a financial interest in the transaction and may therefore have a conflict of interest in furnishing advice to the extent that such recommendations are implemented. Financial planning and/or investment advisory services provided to clients are furnished apart from their affiliation with Signature Estate Securities, Inc. Neither SCIS, SEIS, nor Signature Estate Securities, Inc. have any connection with or responsibility for any SEIA advisory services or activities.
- d. Client hereby consents and agrees that these individuals and entities receive fees on advisory services and commissions on any transactions in securities or insurance products, when implemented by these individuals and entities in their respective capacities for Client.
- e. Client hereby acknowledges that Client is under no obligation to implement any investment or insurance transaction through SEIA, Signature Estate Securities, Inc., SCIS, SEIS, or its affiliates, and may implement SEIA's recommendations through other broker dealers, or agents.

- f. If Client has selected to receive Financial Planning Services under this Agreement, Client acknowledges that Client is under no obligation to implement any recommendations provided in the financial plan. Should Client decide to follow such recommendations, any investment services are typically offered through SEIA, but Client is not obligated to implement any recommendations through SEIA. Client should realize that such recommendations could represent a potential conflict of interest since SEIA's representatives may receive fees, compensation, or other concessions for these services.

X. BASIS OF ADVICE:

Client acknowledges that SEIA obtains information from a wide variety of publicly available sources. The advisor and its financial advisors do not have, nor do they claim to have sources of inside or private information. The recommendations developed by SEIA are based upon the professional judgment of SEIA and its individual financial advisors and neither SEIA nor its affiliates can guarantee the results of any of their recommendations. The financial markets are volatile and there are risks in all types of investment vehicles, including "low risk" strategies. Client, at all times, shall elect unilaterally to follow, ignore completely or in part, any information, recommendation, or advice given by SEIA under this Agreement.

XI. RETIREMENT OR EMPLOYEE BENEFITS PLAN ACCOUNTS:

SEIA shall have no authority or discretion to: (i) interpret the Plan documents; (ii) handle benefit claims under the Plan; (iii) determine eligibility or participation under the Plan; or (iv) take any other action with respect to the management or administration of the Plan.
 - iv. Client acknowledges that this Agreement contains the disclosures required by ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c).
 - v. Client confirms that the Account is only part of the Plan's assets and as such, SEIA is not responsible for all Plan investments and Client's consequential compliance with those requirements under ERISA.
 - vi. Investments are subject to various market, political, currency, economic, and business risks, and may not always be profitable; and further that SEIA does not and cannot guarantee financial or investment results.

- ii. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, SEIA shall not serve as the investment manager for the Plan, as such term is defined in Section 3(38) of ERISA.
 - iii. SEIA shall not, and cannot, provide legal or tax advice to Client and/or the Plan (or any Plan participant or beneficiary), and Client agrees to seek the advice of its own legal and/or tax adviser, as to all matters that might arise relating to the Plan, including, without limitation, the operations and administration of the Plan and the compliance of the Plan with applicable law, including ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

 - v. Plan sponsor shall comply with all applicable federal and state privacy and information security laws governing the use, disclosure and safeguarding of nonpublic personal information.

- g. Additional Provisions Regarding Rollovers and Investing Assets Within a Plan or IRA
- i. Acknowledgement of Fiduciary Responsibility: When SEIA and its advisory personnel provide investment advice to Client regarding Client's retirement plan account or IRA account, SEIA and its personnel are fiduciaries within the meaning of Title I of the ERISA and/or the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable, which are laws governing retirement accounts. The way SEIA makes money creates some conflicts with your interests, so SEIA operates under a special rule that requires us to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. Under this special rule's provisions, we must:
 - Meet a professional standard of care when making investment recommendations (give prudent advice);
 - Never put our financial interests ahead of yours when making recommendations (give loyal advice);
 - Avoid misleading statements about conflicts of interest, fees, and investments;
 - Follow policies and procedures designed to ensure that we give advice that is in your best interest;
 - Charge no more than is reasonable for our services; and

- Give you basic information about conflicts of interest.
- ii. Documentation Regarding Rollover Transactions: When recommending a rollover to a Client, SEIA will document the reasons that a rollover recommendation is in the best interest of Client and provide documentation to the Client.

XII. ARBITRATION:

The Client and SEIA agree that the following steps will be used to settle any controversy or claim, including, but not limited to, errors and/or omissions arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof.

- a. Negotiation. The Client and SEIA agree that they will attempt to resolve any controversy, claim, or dispute (“Dispute”) relating to this Agreement by prompt, good faith negotiations. Any Dispute which is not settled by the Parties within thirty (30) days after written notice of a Dispute is given by one Party to the other shall be referred to arbitration pursuant to Clause ii. below.
- b. Arbitration: This agreement contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:
 - All parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed;
 - Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party’s ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited;
 - The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings;
 - The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 2 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date;
 - The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry;
 - The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court;
 - The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendment thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

All controversies that may arise between you, SEIA, and/or any of our employees, agents or officers (including, but not limited to, controversies concerning any account, order or transaction, or the continuation, performance, interpretation or breach of this or any other agreement between you and us, whether entered into or arising before, on, or after the date this account is opened) shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules then prevailing of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and/or any other securities self-regulatory organization or securities exchange of which the entity against whom the claim is made is a member, as you may designate. If you do not notify us, then you authorize us to make such a designation on your behalf. Any arbitration pursuant to this Agreement shall be governed by the rules of the organization convening the arbitration panel. The award of the arbitrators, or of the majority of them, shall be final, and judgment on the award rendered may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. A party’s ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.

XIII. SEIA LIABILITY:

SEIA does not and cannot guarantee the future performance of the Account(s) or any specific level of performance, or the success of any investment decision or strategy that SEIA may use. Client understands that investment decisions made for Client’s Account(s) by SEIA are subject to various market, currency, economic, political, and business risks, and such investment decisions will not always be profitable.

SEIA acknowledges that it is a fiduciary and must act in the best interest of its clients and no provision in this Agreement can waive that responsibility. Except as otherwise provided by law, neither SEIA nor any of its employees, affiliates, representatives, or agents ("Affiliated Persons") shall be liable for: (a) losses arising from SEIA's adherence to Client's instructions; or (b) acts or failures to act by the Custodian, broker or dealer selected by client to which SEIA directs transactions for the Account(s).

The federal and state securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith, and therefore nothing in this Agreement shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights that Client may have under federal or state laws. Specifically, SEIA has a fiduciary duty to the Client, which includes a duty of care and a duty of loyalty, and thus has a fundamental obligation to act in the best interests of the Client. These elemental duties and obligations are vital to the SEIA-Client relationship, and they cannot be waived, limited, or otherwise restricted.

Without limiting the foregoing, SEIA will not be liable for losses to Client resulting from the disposition of any investment which has been made by a predecessor investment adviser or by another person authorized to invest the assets of Client, if SEIA is unable to dispose of such investment or property because of any federal or state securities laws or restrictions; or it is unmarketable or illiquid in nature; or if any orderly liquidation is difficult under prevailing market conditions. If the Account(s) contains only a portion of Client's total assets, SEIA will not manage, and cannot be responsible for any of Client's assets not designated to SEIA for management under this Agreement or the diversification of all of Client's assets.

XIV. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS:

- a. The Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, and in compliance with the Advisers Act.
- b. The Agreement shall inure to the benefit of any successor of SEIA and shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of Client. Notwithstanding, the rights and obligations hereunder will not be assignable, transferable, or delegable without the consent of the other party. Any attempted assignment, transfer, or delegation thereof without such consent will be void. The foregoing does not prevent an assignment by SEIA in connection with any transaction which does not result in a change of SEIA's actual control or management within the meaning of Rule 202(a)(1)-1 under the Advisers Act.
- c. This Agreement shall not become effective until acceptance by SEIA as evidenced by the signature of an authorized representative below.
- d. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that this Agreement alone constitutes the final written expression of the parties with respect to all matters contained herein, and the parties further acknowledge and agree that there are no prior or contemporaneous Agreements different or distinct from those contained herein, and all such prior and contemporaneous Agreements, if any, are merged herein, and this Agreement alone constitutes the final understanding between the parties.
- e. SEIA is not engaged in rendering legal, accounting or tax services. Client should seek out the services of independent professionals for services in any of the aforementioned areas.
- f. Solicitors: If Client was introduced to SEIA through a Solicitor, Client acknowledges receipt of the written Solicitor Disclosure Statement disclosing the terms of the solicitation arrangement between SEIA and the Solicitor, including the compensation to be received by the solicitor from SEIA. Client understands that Solicitor is not responsible for rendering investment advice or providing recommendations and shall bear no responsibility or liability of any kind as a result of any action, or failure to act, at any time by SEIA.
- g. Electronic Communications: Client expressly agrees to accept electronic communication of any notice, advice, or report in lieu of a printed copy, including applicable disclosure documents and disclosures required under ERISA section 408(b)(2) at the email address provided by the Client or such other email address as Client may designate in writing to SEIA. Client may revoke this consent at any time by providing notice to SEIA.
- h. Severability: If any part of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, it will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms of this Agreement.
- i. Amendment: Unless stated otherwise in this Agreement, the Firm may amend this Agreement at any time by providing thirty (30) days' advance notice to the Client. If no objection is made by the Client within thirty (30) days following delivery of such notice, the Firm will assume Client's inaction constitutes consent.
- j. Notification: Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when: (i) delivered in person, when personally delivered; (ii) sent by facsimile transmission or e-mail, at close of business on the business day following telecopy or e-mail transmission; (iii) sent by overnight courier, upon verification of receipt; (iv) sent by certified or registered mail, upon verification of receipt; or five (5) business days following delivery of the communication to the U.S. Postal Service. - a. Client Information - As a fiduciary, SEIA is committed to safeguarding the use of Client's personal information. However, to allow SEIA continuous management of Client's assets in the event of a life-changing event, such as death, incapacity, or diminished capacity (collectively "Significant Life Events"), Client hereby grants SEIA authorization to allow one or more emergency trusted contacts, as appointed by Client from time to time, access to certain non-public personal information related to Client and Client's Account when triggered by a Significant Life Event. By signing below, Client authorizes SEIA to contact the party[-ies] (a "Trusted Contact") following a Significant Life Event if SEIA reasonably believes doing so is in the Client's best interest. Client agrees for purposes of this Agreement its Trusted Contact shall be recorded in the Client Profile.

Termination upon Proper Notice - Following a Significant Life Event, Client's executor, guardian, attorney-in-fact, or other authorized representative may terminate this agreement by giving written notice to SEIA, with such termination being effective upon SEIA's receipt of such notice (the "Termination Date"). Client understands and agrees to provide SEIA promptly with a copy of any new or existing properly executed power of attorney on Client's behalf during the Term of this Agreement. If Client's Account is a joint account, Client agrees that any of the Account holders individually may grant a power of attorney, but SEIA reserves the right to require each owner to do so at its sole discretion.

- d. Withholding of Distributions upon Reasonable Belief of Client Exploitation - Client understands and acknowledges that SEIA may impose at its sole discretion an initial delay of disbursements from Client's Account(s) for up to fifteen (15) business days if SEIA has a reasonable belief that financial exploitation of Client has been attempted or has occurred. The delay might be extended for an additional ten (10) business days at the request of either an authorized state securities regulator or state adult protective services.

Client agrees that SEIA may give advice and take such other action with respect to these other accounts that may differ from the advice given or the timing or nature of action taken with respect to Client's Account(s).

Client's signature below acknowledges Client's consent to allowing SEIA to communicate and deliver Documents by electronic means, specifically email and through a Client Portal. This consent applies to all Documents relating to those products and services offered by SEIA. For purposes of this section, "Documents" shall mean any disclosures, communications, account agreements, brochures, privacy statements and all other information related to the Client's Account(s), including but not limited to information or disclosures that are legally required to be provided to the Client. Furthermore, the Client may obtain paper copies of any of the Documents at any time and without charge by contacting SEIA at the address provided herein (or such other address as may be provided in the future).

It is Client's responsibility to provide SEIA with an accurate and complete e-mail address, contact, and other information related to all Account(s), and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. By agreeing to this consent, Client agrees to hold SEIA harmless with respect to any disclosure or other information sent to the incorrect e-mail address due to failure to provide SEIA with a current or valid e-mail address. This consent may be withdrawn at any time by providing SEIA with notification to the mailing address provided herein. Such withdrawal shall become effective two (2) business days after SEIA's receipt of request for withdrawal.
